Newsletter Dated April 2011

Senior Adult Directors Bob and Eloise Crossley

Our April 5 luncheon speaker is Cindy Williams who will share with us the writing of the book Through It All...God Was There. She and a group of Christian ladies have put their Christian walk with Jesus in a book.

We have a group going to Shocco April 11, 12, 13th to a Senior Adult Retreat. We will leave Monday at 9:30am and return after lunch on Wednesday.

We would like to invite all FBC seniors that are working or retired to come to our Senior Adult Banquet, Thursday, April 28, at 5:30. Please sign up on our Senior bulletin board or in your Bible Study class if you are attending. This is for all Senior Adults in our church family.

Our speaker and entertainer is 2011 Ms. JSU Whitney Curtis . She will entertain us with singing and also with her special piano talent.

We thank all our contestants in our Oldie Wed Game for our Fun Night. Amanda and Wayne Reaves won the brunch for two at Classic on Nobel. We enjoyed a delicious meal and had a fun night. We appreciate all our ladies who decorated as well as the team that put together the game. Senior Adults you are great!

Happy Birthday to you

Our Christian Book club has inspired us to read Christian books. We appreciate Sherry Butler and Sylvia Malone and all the people who have given book reviews this year. Thanks to Suzanne Hobbs and Amanda Reaves who have organized the book reviews.

We have enjoyed our programs at our Senior Adult Luncheons. Nancy Fox entertained us with songs, and Rev Steve Godwin shared his family missionary trip to Michigan. We were inspired by the couple who shared their work in Eastern Asia and we have adopted their unreached people group as well as sending people from our church to work with them. Thanks for all your support. Monday is a fun day to fellowship with dominoes and bridge. Come and play, and enjoy fellowship with some of our senior adults.

What a great time with our Senior Adults in Rome and Cedartown as we ate at Petro's and enjoyed the Comedians Jeanne Robertson and Carl Hurley. Fun and laughter is so important in our daily lives. Thanks for our bus load of Seniors who fellowshiped together.
